Supervised directions mix measurement families; weights are not causal importance